

Everything You Need to Know About the Green Euro

What is the green euro (€G)?

One Green-Euro is equivalent to one Euro. It is simply a euro that is linked to a reduction in CO₂ emissions. That is, it is a euro that is issued if and only if there is a reduction in CO₂ emissions.

How does €G work?

Users who reduce CO₂ emissions and energy consumption, will earn Green Euros (€G) as a reward. Additionally, Green Loans in €Gs, are offered at a lower APR to support the shift towards a sustainable, carbon-free economy.

Who can use the Green Euro?

Both individuals and businesses can participate. By monitoring and reducing their carbon footprint, they earn Green Euros, which can be spent within the eco-system, encouraging further sustainable practices, any where with the CO₂ App and CO₂ payment card.

Where i can get Green Euros?

Green Euros are issued by organizations and platforms that measure and validate reductions in CO₂ emissions, such as Compte CO₂.

Can I convert Green Euros into regular Euros?

A green-euro, is a euro backed with CO₂ reductions. it is a euro, yet green. There is no conversion, nor potential speculation : 1 green euro = 1 euro. It can be used any where with the App Compte CO₂ and the CO₂ payment card.

